

IF YOU CAN IMAGINE IT, YOU CAN CAPTURE IT IN CALGARY

Recognized as a top ten place to live and work as a moviemaker, Calgary gives your production access to the Rockies, Prairies and Badlands, along with the unique urban gems of a vibrant city, lifestyle and culture.

Calgary is Canada's 4TH largest film/TV production jurisdiction.

The Calgary region is the location for over 80% of Alberta's film, TV and commercial production spend.¹

24,000 people are employed in the creative industries sector.²

Source:

1 Alberta Film

2 The Conference Board of Canada, 2019

CALGARY IS YOUR FILM-FRIENDLY CITY

- Tailored scouting, service and support
- One-window access for all location permits, location packages and production services
- Over 500,000 sq ft of world-class facilities – Calgary Film Centre, Rocky Mountain Film Studios, William F White Studios
- Provincial and federal screen-based incentives
- Highly-skilled and diverse workforce
- Sustainable production practices
- Equity, Diversity, Inclusion and Access initiatives

Learn more ► calgaryfilmcommission.com

calgary
be part of the energy™

What we were able to do within the city limits, really is unprecedented in my experience.

Rose Lam
Executive Producer
The Last of Us

CALGARY-BASED PRODUCTIONS

FILM:

Prey

(20th Century Studios)

Let Him Go

(Focus Features/Universal Pictures)

Ghostbusters Afterlife

(Sony Pictures)

The Revenant

(20th Century Fox)

The Bourne Legacy

(Universal Pictures)

Interstellar

(Paramount Pictures)

TELEVISION:

The Last of Us

(HBO)

Under the Banner of Heaven

(FX)

High School (Season 1)

(Amazon IMDB TV)

Joe Pickett (Season 1)

(Spectrum Originals)

Heartland (Seasons 1-15)

(CBC)

Guilty Party (Season 1)

(Paramount+)

Tribal (Season 1 & 2)

(APTN)

Fargo (Seasons 1,2 & 3)

(FX)

COMMERCIALS:

Government of Alberta

ATCO & ATCO Energy

Fountain Tire

Straight Talk iPhone

Telus

FEDEX Global

ATB

Sport Chek